Elector Eligibility

In order to sign an elector response form in relation to the alternative approval process (AAP), a person must either be a resident elector or a non-resident property elector.

A resident elector is an individual who is entitled to sign an elector response form during an AAP by virtue of living within that jurisdiction. When signing an elector response form, a resident elector must:

- be 18 years of age or older;
- be a Canadian citizen;
- have been a resident of British Columbia for at least six months;
- be a resident of the jurisdiction (i.e. District of Ucluelet);
- live in the area defined for the AAP (i.e. District of Ucluelet); and,
- not be disqualified under the Local Government Act, or any other enactment from voting in a local election or be otherwise disqualified by law.

A non-resident property elector is an individual that does not live in the jurisdiction and who is entitled to sign an Elector Response Form during an AAP by virtue of owning property in that jurisdiction. When signing an elector response form, a non-resident property elector must:

- be at least 18 years of age;
- be a Canadian citizen;
- have been a resident of British Columbia for at least six months;
- be a registered owner of property in the jurisdiction (i.e. District of Ucluelet) for at least 30 days;
- own property in the area defined for the AAP (i.e. District of Ucluelet); and,
- not be disqualified under the Local Government Act, or any other enactment from voting in a local election, or be otherwise disqualified by law.

Note: Only one non-resident property elector may sign an Elector Response Form per property, regardless of how many people own the property. That owner must have the written consent from a majority of the other property owner(s) to sign the response form on their behalf. Property owned in whole or in part by a corporation does not qualify under the non-resident property elector provisions.
